All state, local and coast guard regulations apply.

- To be eligible to fish tournaments one person of the team must be a dues paying or retired member of the participating locals.
- All boat owners must carry a minimum of $100,000.00 liability insurance.
- The use of drugs or alcohol is prohibited.
- In the event a person fishes alone a full entry will be required.
- You and your classic partner must have fished at least (4) tournaments together throughout the year to fish the classic together.
- In the event that a team must "buy" a tournament to qualify for the classic, it must be paid for before that event takes place.
- To be eligible to fish the November 6th and 7th Classic, one person of each team must be a member or retired member of a participating union and must have fished (6) of the (7) tournaments.
- A (1) pound penalty will be assessed for bringing a short fish to the scales.
- Any Team that brings fish to the scales without enough water to completely cover the fish will be disqualified.
- 5 fish limit per boat that can include 1 slot fish per person except lakes that have different length regulations.
- ANY BOAT NUMBERS NOT IN THE CONTAINER AT THE END OF OFFICIAL QUITTING TIME WILL NOT WEIGH FISH
- LIFE JACKETS AND KILLSWITCH MUST BE WORN AT ALL TIMES ABOVE IDLE.

Team of the year $500.00

- Any teams that fishes or pays for all (7) scheduled tournaments qualify for the team of the year.
- A team captain (Building Trades Member) needs to be declared at the 1st tournament and all the points will follow the captain throughout the year no matter who he fishes with.
- Points will be awarded per what place the team comes in during the (7) tournaments (Classic not included)
- 1st place is 100 points, 2nd is 99 points and so on. If you do not weigh a fish during a tournament or pay for a tournament but cannot fish, you will be awarded 70 points for that tournament

The team of the year Money will be paid out at the classic

Louisville Building Trades, participating local unions, and tournament committee members cannot and will not be held responsible for any accidents, damages, losses, or bodily harm
