A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 AM on Saturday, November 21, 2020 at The Catholic Church of the Incarnation, 2229 Lower Hunters Trace, with burial to follow at St. Michael Cemetery. Visitation will be held from 4-8 PM on Friday at Bosse Funeral Home, 1355 Ellison at Barret Avenues.

COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS: due to the fact that the limit inside the funeral home at any one time is 40 people and some families are large, it is suggested that you stay home and sign the online register book at www.bossefh.com. If you do come in person to the visitation, be mindful that congregating more than a brief moment is prohibited at this time, so please sign the register book, quickly give your condolences to the family and leave to allow others that may be waiting in line outside to do the same. Our lounges are closed during the pandemic and no food or drink is allowed inside the funeral home. It is not recommended that you send any type of flowers or memorial gifts that would be taken home, to help quell the spread of the virus.

Donations may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.
